

LAW, POLITICS & PHILOSOPHY MINOR

The Law, Politics, and Philosophy Minor at TCNJ is an interdisciplinary minor preparing undergraduate students for law school. The minor is comprised of two required courses and three options courses, which are available on the next page.

PHL 120 / Introduction to Logic	1 Course Unit
ECO 101 / Principles of Microeconomics	1 Course Unit
Elective 1:	1 Course Unit
Elective 2:	1 Course Unit
Elective 3:	1 Course Unit
Total	5 Course Units

Note: PHL 220: Metalogic usually requires PHL 120/Introduction to Logic, as a prerequisite. However, for qualified students, Metalogic may be substituted in place of Introduction to Logic without having taken PHL 120 with the permission of instructor.

Interested students are welcome to contact Prelaw Minor Coordinator Professor Melinda Roberts at robertsm@tcnj.edu with any questions they have regarding the Prelaw Program and to request a Designated Prelaw Advisor.
