

The Andrew Cuomo for New York campaign committee is currently accepting applications for Spring political volunteers to support our team through the Spring of 2021. Given the current status of COVID-19, the program will be conducted virtually.

We are looking for hard-working, motivated candidates in the New York City area (and beyond!) to work directly with our staff; volunteers can expect to gain unique insight into the New York political landscape.

This is a substantive opportunity and is not like other volunteer opportunities with political organizations. Below is a list of potential responsibilities a volunteer may be involved in:

- Assisting with fundraising and donor outreach.
- Conducting follow up on fundraisers.
- Assist in digital marketing of the campaign.
- Preparing briefings for senior staff.
- Assisting in vetting and compliance.
- Transcribing campaign events.
- Researching venues and conducting venue outreach.
- Helping in various administrative and staffing needs for the campaign.
- Other responsibilities as needed.

Candidates should have the following qualifications:

- Knowledge of Excel/Google Sheets and G Suite Environment.
- Familiarity with NGP, while not required, is a plus.
- Ability to clean data in excel sheets quickly.
- Need to work weekends or outside office hours as needed.
- Must be available between 10-15 hours a week along with the occasional morning, evening, or weekend task as needed.
- Ability to multitask and perform well in a fast-paced environment.

To apply, please submit a resume to ryan@andrewcuomo.com AND that you are applying for the Spring program. Applicants from all educational backgrounds are welcome. Please note, applications submitted directly to the hiring platform WILL NOT be reviewed.

Please email ryan@andrewcuomo.com or call (212) 257-6405 if you have any questions.
