

Summer Organizing Fellowship

Congresswoman Carolyn Maloney is running for re-election in a competitive primary for New York's 12th Congressional District. Carolyn has been a tireless fighter for progressive causes for over 20 years, being an original co-sponsor of the Green New Deal and a co-sponsor of Medicare for All. She has been rated the #2 most effective member of Congress by govtrack.us, and is currently serving as Chairwoman of the powerful House Oversight Committee.

To learn more about Congresswoman Maloney, please visit her website.

About the Fellowship

Fellowship Timeline: June 1st - August 23rd

Fellows will assist with all aspects of the campaign, including but not limited to:

- Volunteer recruitment and management
- Building and planning community events
- Direct voter contact
- Social media and digital engagement
- Fundraising
- Campaign Research

Preferred Qualifications:

- Strong interpersonal and communication skills
- Ability to manage multiple deadlines in fast-paced work environment
- Attention to detail
- Desire to learn about community organizing
- Enthusiasm for local politics

Prior campaign and political experience are NOT required. Applicants may be in person or remote. All fellows are expected to contribute 10-15 hours of work per week. Organizing Fellows will report to the Field Director. For questions, please reach out to the Field Director, james@carolynmaloney.com.

To Apply: Applications are competitive and will be accepted on a rolling basis. Please submit your resume and relevant contact information on this Google Form.