

Political Intern

Coordinator's Email: vote@stevemarilynkimfornj11.com

Location: Colts Neck (In-Office)

Required Hours/Week: Flexible, minimum of 8+ hours/week

Application Process:

Interested applicants should send their resume to vote@stevemarilynkimfornj11.com.

Job Duties:

- Clerical: Assist with administrative tasks, data entry, filing, and organizing campaign materials.
- Research: Conduct research projects, gather information, and prepare summaries on relevant campaign topics.
- Door Knocking: Play a crucial role in connecting with voters.
- Organizing: Support the coordination and logistics of campaign events, meetings, and volunteer activities.

Opportunities for Growth:

- Internal Strategy Sessions: Observe and participate in internal strategy discussions and planning sessions.
- Event Planning: Attend events with candidates, based on availability and campaign activities.
- Expand Your Network: Build connections in New Jersey Politics and contribute to one of the most competitive races in the State.

Work Schedule:

- Interns can create their own schedules but should be available for occasional weekend work.
- Flexibility is encouraged to accommodate campaign events, voter outreach efforts, and other time-sensitive activities.
- Don't miss out on this incredible opportunity to gain hands-on political experience and make a difference!

Apply today at vote@stevemarilynkimfornj11.com!